10 Your workplace

1 Title

The title is made up of the job title and the field of work. The workload, place of work and type of contract (temporary or permanent) automatically appear as subtitles.

2 Introduction

Introduce the institution or department in two to three sentences.

3 Project background (optional)

This paragraph can be optionally added for academic advertisements.

4 Job description

Description of the work objectives, tasks, skills and links to other positions, what makes the position appealing, and the parameters (preferred start date, potential willingness to travel, shift work, explanation of the employment period for fixed-term positions, etc.).

5 Your profile

Description of all the key qualifications required (level of education/qualifications, work experience, expertise, skills and personality traits).

6 ETH Zurich

This paragraph is included in all job advertisements and cannot be edited. Alongside a short description of ETH Zurich and the video Ready?, there are links to the website Working, teaching and research and ETH Zurich's official social media channels.

7 Interested?

Details of all the relevant information for the application (application documents, application deadline, link to the website of the department or institution, point of contact for further information, information on the selection process).

8 Equal Opportunity Employer Statement

In order to express ETH Zurich's commitment to equal opportunities and diversity, an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE) Statement is included in all job advertisements.

9 Online application

All applications must be submitted online. Applications via email or postal services will not be considered.

10 Your workplace

The place of work is displayed via Google Maps. If the position involves multiple places of work, this must be explained in the paragraph 4 Job description.

Please note

- On the ETH job portal, changing images are displayed over the job title. These images as well as the ETH logo are a part of ETH Zurich's corporate design and cannot be altered.
- If the work contract is not issued by ETH Zurich, the advertisement will be marked as a "Partner advertisement". In this case, the paragraph 6 ETH Zurich and the option to apply via the recruitment tool are not included.
